Today's Gospel can seem a long way from us. Going out two by two to announce the Kingdom, without money and so forth and yet it can relate to your life. What is the Kingdom? It's not something in the future it's present here and now. It is the knowledge that you have been chosen. The Lord has selected you and not your brother or sister or some family members. I hope you have had the experience of the Lord Resurrecting your life. If not then today is the day to ask him for that grace and do not doubt that the Lord will fulfill it. You can come to know the Lord and to begin to see His action in your life. That He has always been there even when you felt He was absent. This is the Kingdom and also when you have had the grace to love the one who is opposed to you. We can call them "our enemy". Have you ever loved your enemy without effort; just as a sheer grace or gift from God? If not, again 'ask and you shall receive.' After all this then you can begin to announce the 'Good News', which is simply what the Lord has done for you. If you can't think of what He has done for you do not despair. Again ask and wait for Him to reveal himself to you.

Of course there is need of repentance in order for the Lord to come and this is what the Apostles announced, "Repent but believe in the Good News."(Mark 1:15). It is also a gift from the Lord. May the Lord grant us all these gifts out of His enormous generosity.

Fr. Paul
