From the Pastor Desk

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ.
Christ is Truly Risen!

This past week, we had the privilege of hosting Father Bartek, a newly ordained priest from Kingston, Jamaica. It was a grace to attend his First Mass, and many received indulgences as a result.

We also mourn the passing of Mr. Subin G. Varghese. Let us keep his soul and his family in our prayers during this difficult time.

This Sunday's readings invite us to reflect on our existence and our journey toward the Father. The Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ brings us new hope and meaning in our lives. It is important that we do not resist the surprises of the Spirit, for it is the Spirit who continues to lead the Church forward, despite the challenges and changes we face. We must read all the signs with faith, trusting that it is the Lord who has sent the Holy Spirit to guide us. We are simply earthen vessels and humble servants.

In today's Gospel, we hear, "Father, that they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me..." The Lord directs our gaze, like that of the Apostles, toward Heaven, showing us how to live righteously during our time on earth. He remains present in human history, close to each of us, guiding our Christian journey. He is the companion of those who face persecution for their faith. He resides in the hearts of the marginalized, and He is with those denied the right to life. We can hear, see, and touch our Lord Jesus in the Church, especially through the Word and the sacraments.

In the coming weeks, our children and young people will receive the Sacraments of Confession for the first time, as well as First Communion. This is an opportunity for them to remain faithful to the Word of God and to the teachings they have learned, aware of their calling to witness to the Truth.

The Lord, by opening the way to Heaven, gives us a glimpse of divine life here on earth. Remember, God is Love, and He loves us.

God bless you all.

Fr. Orlando

Christ is Risen, It is Truly Risen

At Holy Family Academy, our values, resonate with the spirit of unity embodied in Pope Leo XIII's coat of arms and its motto, "In Illo uno unum" ("In the One, we are one"). As we learn about our new Pope, Leo XIV, We continue to be inspired by the call to find common ground and purpose in our shared faith, recognizing the special connection we share with our Pope, who served as a missionary before his papacy, a role that deeply resonates with our identity as a missionary school.

A group of our dedicated high school students embarked on a week-long journey to Ohio to participate in a highly competitive science fair, showcasing their exceptional talent and representing our school with pride!
