

HFA College Building is coming soon!

Holy Family Academy started an exciting new journey last year when it partnered with St. Thomas University in Miami to offer students a path to earning a college degree while remaining on the island. The students who participated in the program last year will continue studying full-time toward their college degree.

Our next goal for these students is to give them a dedicated place to study by extending our campus with a new building on the church grounds. We are only able to achieve this goal through the grace of God and through your continued generosity. A donation to help in the college building construction is not only an investment in their future but an investment in the continued growth of these beautiful islands.

We thank you in advance for your support, and God bless.

Fr. Orlando González.

Given today's Gospel it seems as if everyone should have only one hand, foot and eye! As we have all sinned with them and continue to sin. I remember this Gospel and how it turned me back from walking to a place where more than likely I would sin.

This was 35 years ago. But still the Gospel is there to remind you that there is the ever present need to "cut" with sin. This is also because of the other section of today's Gospel that speaks about giving scandal. If, for example, everyone in your workplace or class room, or family, know you are an active Christian and yet you deliberately continue in some obvious sin then this is serious. I know that I can be bad tempered or distant but even these lesser sins, as I call them, can dishearten those around us.

I remember when my Father would say, "Don't do as I do but do as I say." This stance holds no water, and is a hopeless justification for continuing in sin. It's important to realize that you also have sins that you wish you didn't have and that you beg the Lord to take them away, but the Lord can allow them, so that they can, make you a little bit humble. As can be seen from all of this there is the need for the grace of wisdom to discern which sins you need to be more brutal with and those that need your humble acceptance. Let us ask Our Lord, Jesus Christ to give us this wisdom everyday. Fr. Paul
